

ATI Consultative Group 1: Work Plan 2022-2023

The 3 E's of good tax systems

In line with the discussions held by ATI Consultative Group 1 in January 2023, activities alongside the following four work streams have been updated: monitoring of ATI Commitment 1, equitable taxation, subnational taxation, revenue administration and reform, and cross-cutting activities / products related to other ATI commitments.

Work stream	Activities / Products
Monitoring	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evaluation of progress of ATI Commitment 1 towards the achievement of the ATI Declaration 2025 (in progress)
Equitable taxation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Brief on ATI partner countries' perspectives from moving towards equitable tax systems (completed) Presentation on evidence-based fiscal policy tools to improve equity in collaboration with Germany (in progress)
Subnational taxation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Virtual workshop series on policy design for property taxation among partner countries in partnership with the Local Government Revenue Initiative (LoGRI) (in progress)
Revenue administration and reform	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Workshop series on digitalisation of revenue administrations in collaboration with the OECD's Forum on Tax Administration (FTA) (completed) Webinar on ATI partner countries' experiences with formulating and implementing national revenue or reform strategies in the medium-term (completed) ATI Matchmaking Platform as a vehicle for addressing country-specific concerns regarding revenue administrations' efficiency, effectiveness and transparency (in progress)
Cross-cutting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ATI Consultative Group 4's webinar on enhancing tax accountability through citizen participation and taxpayer education (completed) Virtual events on tax & environment, tax & gender and other cross-cutting topics (tbd)