

The GIFT Tax Transparency Principles

Prof Richard Murphy
University of Sheffield

University of Sheffield

tax transparency

International
Budget
Partnership

Tax transparency is a public good

- We believe that tax is a public good
- A service provided by government that can improve well-being in communities
- For the benefit of everyone
- Working together we have built the GIFT Transparency Principles for Tax Policy and Administration on this basis
- <https://fiscaltransparency.net/tax-transparency-principles/>

tax transparency

The GIFT tax transparency principles

- Published in 2022
- 14 steps making progress towards delivering tax transparency - from basic steps to advanced level ideas
- Aimed at tax administrators
- But aiming to meet the needs of all the interested parties in a tax system

tax transparency

The GIFT tax transparency course

- A collaboration to deliver the ultimate tax transparency course
-

tax transparency

tax transparency
